Principal Message

The warrior spirit continues to live within the walls of PCSS and it has never been stronger. One way we define the spirit of a warrior at PCSS is through our commitment to our D.A.R.E. program and the philosophy that we value "Dignity and Respect Everywhere". We promote the character attributes of respect, caring, responsibility and honesty. The demonstration of our warrior spirit is evident in the way we interact with each other and with our environment. The administration and the staff receive many compliments from the community acknowledging the talent, spirit and respect you, as Port Credit Warriors, demonstrate on the athletic fields, through your charity work, when you go out into the community and when the community comes to our school events.

Most importantly, we appreciate your spirit as you participate on a daily basis in your own classrooms and you interact with each other. Warriors are defined by their bravery, their leadership and their character! Thank you to the Yearbook editors, Yearbook contributors and to your staff advisor, Mrs. Duzzie-Browne, for your own exemplary warrior spirit in producing this amazing book that documents and celebrates all of our Port Credit Warriors!

"Humankind has not woven the web of life. We are but one thread within it. Whatever we do to the web, we do to ourselves. All things are bound together. All things connect." Chief Seattle, 1854 Ms Wendy Lautamus

Editorial Message

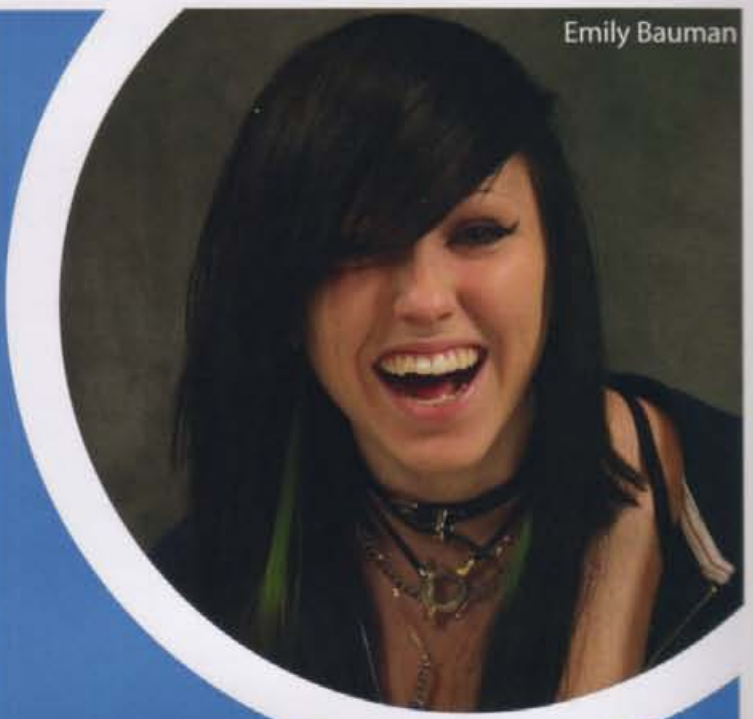
Port Credit is a school of vitality; the embodiment of youthful energy. To capture such spirit in a yearbook would probably require some pop-out animation, but our yearbook team has worked diligently to contrive a slightly more mature product (I know, pop-out pages would have been pretty cool). Nonetheless, the 2010-2011 yearbook was a success. With the guidance of Mrs.Brown, our team pulled together and created something special. Our design team was amazing and broke down every stop so even the non-techies, like myself, could understand how to work different design programs. Our photographers were on top of every event held at PCSS, which made all our jobs much easier. We all came to rely on Mrs. Brown to provide comedic relief in order to take the edge off, so to speak, of the insanely large task we were faced with. And her quirky stories were a welcome bonus. I don't want to ramble on though, and I'm sure you're all eager to flip through the tangible memories that create a yearbook. Without further a due, I'd like to say congrats to the whole yearbook team for a job well done! I'm sure you're all ready to come back next year to slave over it again. No? What a surprise… okay well you can enjoy the book now I guess.

Meaghan McComb



Emily Bauman

In all honesty I never expected that I would get this opportunity to be Co-Editor of the yearbook and the whole idea of being in charge was a little daunting. Yes, it does have its challenges but overall I would have asked for nothing less. Coming into this project I knew it was going to be a bit confusing, ideas were going to clash, but I was sure with all the talent within the group we would be able to pull something amazing together. We attempted to give the yearbook more of a design aspect this year, making every page into something that not only was memorable but also looked like it belonged. There was quite a bit of Helvetica abuse, which probably got annoying to some people after a while, but you can never have enough of that font. I need to thank Julia Grzeskowiak and Claire Macauley, who together were able to create amazing layouts for the whole book. As well I would like to thank Ms. Zita and Ms. Urquhart for helping me grow and become a better designer throughout my life here at PC, and I was able to bring some of that into my job this year. Finally a special thanks needs to go out to Mrs. Browne for all her encouragement and help with the yearbook this year. Without her we would have probably been completely lost on what we needed to accomplish and I would have never been given this amazing chance. Overall it was a great experience, and if anyone ever gets this opportunity, take it. I realized I probably talk a bit too much, so what I'm

Claire Macaulay (left) and Julia Grzeskowiak

The 2010-2011 yearbook was quite a challenge at first, to come up with a theme that would be successfully demonstrated throughout the book as well as the satisfaction of the yearbook class. We tried to keep it simple and bold to allow every aspect of school life without the dominance of a theme. When things get moving, they really get moving and it was a rush to finish all the pages on time. A special thanks to the editors, you guys were great, and thanks to the class for putting up with our daily announcements about the ways of illustrator and importance of typography. We had a great time creating the year book and we hope you enjoy it. - Julia Grzeskowiak and Claire Macaulay

Michael Oshell and Jake Soko

As advertising editors Jake Soko and I, Michael Oshell were given the task of organizing the finances and promotions that would help the yearbook be able to achieve its vision. Through fund raisers, grad comments and sponsorships we were able to give the yearbook the funds it deserved to make it the best yearbook possible. Our time spent on the yearbook was exhausting yet enjoyable and we hope you enjoy the book as much as we enjoyed working on it. The world is your oyster...

Editors

This year at Port Credit we had more editors than ever before, all of whom worked together to create the book you are now holding. We had five different types of editors, and co-editors in each section. Thank you to our main editors, Emily Bauman and Meaghan McComb, whose guidance and assistance consistently help us through this process. Our advertising editors, Jade Soko and Michael Oshell spent all year butting heads, but they still managed to pull together and help us get the yearbook out and around. Rylie Wilson, Alex Maris and Kyle Johnson were our photography editors, and just the sheer amount of photos in this book reflect their anazing work. Lauren Dembicky, Crisitana Istudor and Elissa Morris were the copy editors, who diligently edited every page in this book and we dare you to find a mistake! Lastly, a huge thank you to Julia Grzeskowiak and Claire Macaulay the design editors whose deigns and assistance made this yearbook possible!

You only graduate from high school once, so why not try to have as many lasting memories of your time here as you can? This year's copy editors were Elissa Morris and Cristiana Istudor, and I, Lauren Dembicky. Our job as copy editors is to make sure that the memories in this yearbook are exactly the ones you want to have...and even some that you might want to forget just a little bit. It has been such a pleasure to review this incredible book, and we know that it is one that you'll want to crack out in 50 years to show the grandkids.

This year, the photography editors were Alex Maris, Rylie Wilson and I, Kyle Johnson. We loved having the chance to use and improve our photography skills while also getting a chance to see many great people and events throughout PC. We feel honored being able to leave our mark behind through this yearbook, and look forward to what PC has in the years to come. It was a privilege being your photography editors, and we wish all our fellow yearbook staff and student body the best of times ahead. Cheers!

Peer Mentoring

Port Credit's Future Educators

The Peer Mentors of PC are a group of eager students who want to assist those in the junior grades with their studies. Throughout the course, students will gain a better understanding of a possible career choice, while improving public speaking skills and confidence as they teach lessons in front of the class. Thanks Ms. Hashimoto for all her hard work and dedication.

Team Ten

The team Ten students here at Port Credit are a motivated group of students who enjoy being part of the school. The students always have a very positive outlook on life and bring smiles to the faces of all those around them.
Team 10 does not focus on completing a specific curriculum but students are part of the Art, Drama, Auto., and Phys Ed. departments. They are eager to help out around the school with tasks such as completing jobs for the office, taking care of plants, and changing the messages on the school sign which all make the school a more beautiful place.

Thank you Ms. Jordan for all your hard

Smile!

Strings

Concerts, Trips and Music

The Regional Strings Program is a great program that allows students to be enriched by the beauty of string instruments. Learning how to play different interesting musical compositions by famous composers such as J.S. Bach, Mozart, and Albinoni has been enjoyable. We all come towards the common goal of giving a stunning performance to the audience, whether they may be elementary students, middle school students or even peers and parents at school concerts. Regional Strings also provides students with the ability to express themselves through music, much like a person expressing him or herself by writing and reading.

Port Credit's Co-Op Students Take on the World

Does it ever feel like you're trapped inside Port Credit's concrete walls? That sitting in a classroom day after day isn't taking you anywhere? Port Credit's co-op students have taken on their own two or four credit challenges- spending their days not in a desk but in a workplace.

They work at real jobs to gain real world experience which can be put towards future apprenticeships and can work almost anywhere.

In restaurants and radio stations, auto shops and classrooms, salons and beyond, you can find Port Credit students working hard not through research but through practical application.

Established now for five years, the innovative students of Port Credit's SciTech program have surpassed past achievements with new labs and experiments that are sure to expand the light that glows in everyone's minds.

One side focuses on the physics, chemistry, and biology, while the other learns to build and design in tech. This year, SciTech students had a major event known as the Brainstorm Challenge. During this chill, fall morning, grade 9 and 12 SciTech students participated in the two activities: the building of the highest card towers, and the rocket launch that targeted Bieber. Inside the nearby physics classroom, others partook in the building of chemical compounds with little plastic representations. Led by a supportive and an open-minded science department, these students have added definition and variety to Port Credit's already robust student body.

Digital Media is a three year course dedicated to the mastering of Adobe Photoshop and Illustrator. Our talented and committed teacher Mrs.Urquhart is always challenging us to exercise our design and creative skills and she goes above and beyond in her teaching. We go into depth with layouts, rules of compositions, typography, illustration, color, and art influences. Let's not forget the art history that plays a huge rule in the learning experience. Every year we study different art periods and different approaches to design. Mrs. Urquhart's sharp attention to detail and organization skills help us keep organized and prepare for the real world.

Journalism

Our journey from blank pages to smiling faces

Why?

Your friendly neighborhood journalism class does everything from designing the yearbook to updating our blog. We're here to photograph your soccer games, interview your teachers and keep you up to date with everything PC related!

What?

The 4U Interdisciplinary Studies, or Journalism course works throughout first semester and turns into a club second semester to finish up the yearbook needs. From schools magazines to the yearbook, we offer everything you could want.

When?

Journalism is a class in first semester, usually first period in room 225. Second semester it becomes a club, with editors and class members continuing to attend with the sole purpose of making your yearbook the best it could possibly be.

Who?

Ms. Duzzie-Browne's grade twelve journalism class creates the yearbook while fulfilling the school journalism needs. A dedicated class of senior students made up of future artists, editors, designers and entrepreneurs.

Life may be a box of chocolates but high school is more like the vending machines in the caf. Some of it is good, like flavored dill pickle chips, and some of it is not so great like the imitation jelly beans. But no matter how artificial it gets, there are always the watermelon slices to help get you through. Live, Love, Laugh.

-Laura Fast

Wow, four years seemed to fly by. Now that it's almost over, I can't help but think how much I'm going to miss this place. I've met some incredible people and had some unforgettable times. "And will you succeed? Yes indeed, yes indeed! 98 and 3/4 percent guaranteed." - Dr. Seuss Good luck class of '11!
-Maggie Fisher

I can't believe some of the stuff I've managed to get away with here. My time at PCSS has been truly amazing, and I owe it all to my friends: you guys are my world. Cheers to the four years ;)
-Michelle Gibney

After 4 years at PC I can't think of anything besides all the good times I've had. This school has altered my view on life and shaped me as the person I am today. Always a good laugh at PC and I hope it stays that way. I'll never forget my roots at PC, along with all the friends and family I've made. One love.
-Robert Hoff

It was a pleasure spending a victory lap year at Port Credit. Not only did I become closer with the former grade 11s a year behind me, but I also became much better friends with the remaining students from my graduating year. It was a blast taking all the courses I love, and I'll always treasure these days - the time I got my first part-time job, and found someone special in my life. I hope the best for all of my fellow PC Warriors in their years ahead. Cheers!

It is during the four years of high school that students experience some of the greatest times of their lives; some are worth remembering and some would rather be forgotten. Luckily for us, during our time here, we have the privilege of meeting some of the most intelligent people that we will ever encounter. We also have some pretty great teachers. The teachers we have had over the course of four years (or more!) are the people that we will remember forever. Whether he is a film teacher who succeeds in cracking up and confusing entire classes, or a history teacher who has a passion for revenge and a good cup of tea, or an English teacher who preaches the work of Northrop Frye and diverges on paths of conversation that the entire class loves to listen to, the teachers at Port Credit are the Michelangelo to the student body's David. The cafeteria, library, custodial, and office staff are the foundation of the school and students greatly appreciate their dedication to this institute of learning. Without these leaders guiding us to a successful future, we would be unable to shed the graduation gowns after commencement and move on to the uncharted territory known as our 20s.

Sci-Tech

As one of the newest councils in Port Credit, the SciTechcouncil certainly made their purpose known. Through experiments involving innovative technologies and expanding their knowledge of science, these fifty-some students live their passion at PCSS. As they continue to support the Sci-Tech program with various fundraisers, we wish them all the best in the future!

Athletic Council

Each year Athletic Council proves its importance at Port Credit. This year we ran Terry Fox Day, school clothing sales, entertainment book sales, and the athletic banquet. Over the last two years we have also developed a wellness council within Athletic Council. This year our concentrations have included tobacco awareness, nutrition, oral health, eating disorder awareness, MADD etc. The wellness council along with Athletic Council has organized assemblies and fun events for the students to get involved in throughout the school year.

We would like to thank all of the members of Athletic Council for making this year so successful; it has been a pleasure to work with everyone. The council would also like to thank Mrs. Hashimoto and Mrs. Proctor for their continuous support and guidance.

-Co-presidents Laura Fast & Evelyn Lavrisa

Student Activity Council

A message from your co-presidents . . .

As a council, it has been a pleasure representing the student body of Port Credit this year. Our goal to raise school spirit and improve student life at PC was highlighted by our many spirit days, flash mobs, and cooperation with various councils. Through the Blue and Gold Day in the fall, the Remembrance Day assembly, our extremely successful canned food drive in the winter, the involvement in the SOAR foundation, the first successful school dance in over a year, the talent show and our play day, the Student Activity Council was able to contribute to the wellbeing of our school. Through these events, we hope that we made the 2010/11 school year an enjoyable experience for everyone with many memories to look back on. A special thanks to all our executive members, and our teacher representatives, Mr. Wells, Ms, Doerfling, Ms. Dawkins and Ms. Anthony. We wish the future SAC executives and presidents the best of luck. Keep the Warrior spirit alive.

- Jonathan Barbaro & Rebecca Leon

Music Council

"Music is what life sounds like"

Music Council has been a great experience for all its members. Everyone participated in the many successes starting from the bake sale to the great Music Concert - Lights. We thank everyone that has had a hand in making this a great council!

Touring and Festival Band

The PCSS "Touring and Festival Winds" are a "fledgling" concert band that began at the high school in fall of 2010 to fulfill a desire for experienced music students to be able to participate in an active ensemble all year long rather than being restricted to "semester only" performance groups. Comprised of musicians from grades 9 through 12, this "growing" group of talented and "driven" musicians rehearses once a week after schools with mandatory home-practice assigned. Mr. Baker is the Musical Director of this project.

Art Council & Drama Council

"Art enables us to find ourselves and lose ourselves at the same time"

Everything from banners, posters, advertisements, murals, and facepainting at events, Art Council is there. Supervised by Mrs. Zita and the two art council co-presidents, Julia Grzeskowiak and Emily Bauman, along with their group, support and aesthetically enhance our school.

Supervised by Mrs. Boyle , Drama Council President Elissa Morris, and her group of dedicated students, Drama council ran the talent show on Halloween, So You Think You Can Dance PC, and helped with the Sears Festival. Drama council also runs plays and other many other events.

Cars & Siblings

Grad Breakfast

The Grad Breakfast is a time for the students and teachers to come together and reminisce about the four years that these students have spent at Port Credit. Under the guidance of Ms. Fullerton and Ms. Boston, the breakfast is a celebrated annual event.

Formal Committee

This year, the Prom Committee, under the guidance of Ms Hogan and Ms Hogan-Stefanovic worked tirelessly to create a magical night that the Grade 12s will remember forever. Their commitment will be ever present in the final event that everyone will enjoy.

Improv/Sears Festival

The Improv Team: Maggie Fisher, Daniel Andrade, Cole Brunger, Iain Mckenzie, Lauren Wood, Charlotte Nazari, Addison Milne-Price, Baudri Murali.The improv team at Port Credit Secondary School practices hard to compete in the Regionals competition for CIG. This year they did excellently, coming in 6th in their zone. Keep an eye out for tryouts in the fall!

This year, a cast of eccentric people playing stereotypes of teenagers trapped in cyberspace took to the stage. Co-written by Cole Brunger, Maggie Slaughter and Addison Milne-Price; uncovering a revelation between their addiction to technology and its effects on their perceptions and relationships. Cast: Kiersti Wilcox , Grace Mckay, Hilary Mikkola, Cole Brunger, Maggie Slaughter, Ben Rafuse, Jordan Wey and Directed by: Addison Milne-Price

Stage Crew

Working behind and on the stage in the auditorium, the stage crew often sets up and prepares the room for assemblies, shows, and special guest speakers. Led by Willie Carrol, these tech-savvy students have a chance to practice, use, and enhance their skills around show equipment ranging from cameras to lights and sound systems.

Announcements

Bright-eyed and busy-tailed every morning of the week, the annoucements team, comprised of a dozen members who rotate the responsibility, bring attention to all of the important events, meetings, and achievements in the school. Notably, many of you will remember the enthusiastic alliterative sign-off messages of the day. Here's hoping many more marvelous Mondays to the announcers led by Natascia Zucarelli.

Senior Art Show

The Senior Art Show entitled'Ahrt and Dih-zahyn' displayed art that truly displayed our senior students' talent. Anyone who attended the event would have enjoyed a night filled with outstanding artistic talent and cake.

Natalie Decoste

Dima Loptain

Orchestra/Jazz/Choir

"Music is the medicine of the mind"

Orchestra is run by our very own Dr. Kizas and Ms. Lufer who, as a first this year, started the beginning of the symphony. Orchestra is full of very dedicated students with a passion for music, and because of this the orchestra is off to an amazing and successful start! We encourage students to come out and join next year.

The Sr. Jazz Big Band was formed in the winter of 2010 as an extra-curricular activity for interested musicians. Since then, the group has grown to 24 players and performed at such prestigious events as the "Tim Horton's" Port Credit Street shuffle. Mr. Baker is Musical Director of this project.

Started in the Winter of 2011, this fledgling organization involves enthusiastic singers ranging from grades 9 through 12 who perform a wide variety of music ranging from traditional choral music to R&B and Country. Mr. Baker is the Musical Director with Ms. Lufer as Associate Music director of this project.

Future Lawyers

Port Credit's Mock Trial Argue to Win

Every year at Port Credit, the Mock Trial team participates in the Peel Mock Trial Tournament held at the A. Grenville and William Davis Courthouse in Brampton. The team consisted of Prianka Kalraiya, Abeera Sheikh, Somya Paliwal, Harrison Mikkola, Raida Atcha, Rachel Surminski, Ryan Klafuric, and Charlotte Nazari. In February, the Mock Trial team practiced the case and built arguments for both the defense and prosecution to present. The hard work paid off as Port Credit placed in the top eight schools at the competition. Special thanks goes to coaches Mr. Parkinson and Ms. Dawkins, without whom the team would not have been possible.

Environment Club

Running for many years under the direction of various members of staff, the Environmental Club works hard to figure out ways to change the world. Meeting once a week on the second floor, this club discusses eco-friendly goals, and how to achieve them, often supporting themselves with volunteer events or fundraisers that they organize. Ms. Meyer is the supervising teacher.

South Asian Club

The South Asian Club meets every week where they embrace their traditions and express themselves through dance and music. The South Asian club has put on many performances this year which have entertained many with their unique style of dance, fashion and culture.

PC's Library

Books Books and More Books!

The library at Port Credit is always a thriving place. It's a place where studying is encouraged and silence is mandatory! The library is meticulously maintained by the library staff, Mr. Bonnette, Ms. Rumlich and the new library tech. And a special thanks to Miss Allen, who retired this year after 20 years at PC!

European Adventure

The 2010 Trip to Vienna, Austria!

Last year, the Strings Program did something spectacular: they took a group of students to Vienna, Austria. During the March Break, 30 students travelled through a historic city, seeing and enjoying all of the sights. A special thanks goes out to Dr. Kizas, and Ms. Brodie for undertaking the planning of the trip!

Visual Art

Port Credit's art department offers students a variety of courses that explore all sorts of mediums. From drawing, painting and printmaking to sculptures and mixed media, students have the opportunity to learn it all. Ms. Zita's courses help those who are looking to pursue art as a career become well rounded and prepare for university portfolio interviews, not only by intense teachings about art techniques, but also through study in the area of art history . The senior art class even had a chance to participate in an art show that took place at the school in January, which allowed them to show off their hard work to parents, teachers and any students who decided to join that night.

Chemistry & Math Club

Many people say that math is the foundation of all learning. Combine that with chemistry which studies the base of all life, and you've got two clubs that could very easily take over the world with their calculators and elements.

Cross-Country

"You can't coach heart and desire; it must come from within."

This year Cross Country had a great season! For the first time in over 10 years, a PC athlete made it to OFSAA. Derek Van Schepen came in 3rd at ROPSSAA and qualified to compete at OFSAA.

X-Country is a brutal sport. The weather conditions are not always great, but all the PCSS warriors never gave up. X-Country starts at the end of summer and continues through the fall. The runners are very dedicated and trained really hard this season. The team competed at Pre-OFSAA at Centennial Park and many more locations. Results were great!

Ski Team

Time to Hit the Slopes!

Port Credit's ski team traveled to Blue Mountain this year where they made Ms. Doerfling and Ms. Park proud with their impressive speed and passion for this great winter sport. They also stopped once in a while and posed to show off their great strength and team work as well.

Swim Team

PCSS Swim Team Makes a Splash!

When the earth floods from global warming, the swimmers will rule the world.

-Author Unknown

This year's swim team has been all about getting out there and getting wet, and boy, did the team succeed. Our team went to ROPSSA and made Ms.McDermid proud.

Leadership

The Port credit Leadership course has become a tradition at our school. Students are admitted into this course based on their achievements inside and outside the classroom. With the guidance of their dedicated teachers, Mr. Tutty and Mrs. Proctor, students expand their abilities through a wide range of activities.

For the grade 10 class, this included a trip to Camp Wankakita where the students built and slept in quinces. Throughout the year they took part in numerous outdoor activities such as: soccer, ringette, baseball, football, bowling and camping at Rattlesnake Point.

The grade 11 class is also run by Mrs. Proctor and Mr. Tutty. This year, the students enjoyed snowboarding and skiing at Mount Tremblant in Montreal. They showed determination during the annual triathlon, which took place at Cawthra Park S.S. They focused on the importance of physical activity and overall health.

This program encourages students to get active and become more involved in their communities. Without the dedication of Mr. Tutty and Mrs. Proctor, such a program would not be made available at PCSS.

Events

Throughout the year at Port Credit, our students participate in a multitude of events. From Spirit Days to Halloween costume contests, Port Credit does it all. We kicked off the year with a football-themed Spirit Day and moved straight onto the annual Terry Fox run and Halloween contests. The Vow of Silence, a new tradition at Port Credit, took place, as well as Athletic Council's popular tobacco awareness week. Many English classes took part in Amnesty International's "Write for Rights" movement and Drama Council displayed its popular Sears Festival One Act Play.
The many Strings concerts and talent shows added an extra zing to Port Credit's year to make it truly unforgettable!

Skills Ontario

Every year Port Credit sends a team of students to participate in the Skills Competitions at both regional and provincial levels. Students this year competed in Graphic Design, 3D Character Animation, Photography, Video production and more. At the regional level all Port Credit students received either Bronze, Silver or Gold medals for their efforts. A big thanks goes out to Mr. Mason and Mr. Tempelmann for their help in organizing this year's team.
